PRODUCT INFORMATION

Zerust® ICT® Weapon Protection Bags are easy-to-use rust inhibiting bags specifically designed for the protection of weapons and weapon accessories. Zerust® ICT® Weapon Protection Bags are available in several sizes and two types to provide superior rust protection for most standard weapons, as well as weapon parts and accessories during shipment, storage and in between operations in the field.

Zerust® ICT® Weapon Protection Bags are made from our Zerust® ICT® 510-C Film—the most widely used Zerust® packaging product that has proven its performance with thousands of customers worldwide for over 20 years. Zerust® ICT® weapon bags have been used—in the past and present, to protect military weapons and other equipment.
