Zerust® ICT®510-C Weapon Protection Bags are easy to use, light weight, and high strength. The bags provide corrosion protection for up to five years* for weapons, weapon parts and accessories during shipment, storage and in-between operations. The bags are available in two sizes. The small size is designed to protect pistols and small accessories, and the large size is specifically for rifles.

Zerust® Weapon Protection Bags are made from our Zerust® ICT® 510-C Film—the Zerust® packaging product that has proven its performance with thousands of customers worldwide for over 20 years. Zerust® Weapon Bags are deployed in the field today as effective protection from rust and sand for military weapons and other equipment.

* Weapons and parts must be clean and dry for maximum protection of up to 5 years.
